Taft's Program of Work for This Administration

April 26.—President Taft, as soon as he left out of the way, inter-state corporations of the department of commerce and labor, the interstate commerce commission and the department of justice. It was Mr. Taft's original idea to make the bureau of corporations an inquisitorial body, with the power to initiate inquiries. The president, then, would make the interstate commerce commission a grand jury to pass on the evidence obtained by the bureau before handing it on to the department of justice for prosecution.

PORTSMOUTH BOY DID WELL

Pitches a winning game against a Boston Team of Good Hitters

In the game of baseball between St. Anselm's college and the Boston University at Manchester on Saturday, John Driscoll of his city was in the box for the Queen city college boys and did good work.

The Manchester Union has the following to say of his work:

Driscoll started the game in the box for St. Anselm's and, considering the weather, and the fact that it was the first game that he had faced a strange team, he did good work and is, with more training, a comer.

The St. Anselm's won out by a wide margin of 18 to 7.

THE WEATHER

Monday night and Tuesday—Cold night with showers and perhaps flurries of snow followed by clearing weather with chilly northwest winds.

SULTAN'S BROTHER IS RULER ?

The Latest in the Reports That Come from Constantinople

Constantinople, April 26.—With his loyal Albanians surrendered, disarmed and gone, himself in the hands of the Army of the Constitution, Abdul Ramed, Sultan of Turkey, is making desperate efforts to extricate himself and prop his tottering throne.

He has offered the Constitutionalists $50,000,000 in gold from his private fortune. Although this would be enormously useful in the bankrupt condition of the country, the Young Turks have spurned it.

It is even now reported that the Sultan's brother is on the throne.

The Sheikh-ul-Islam, head of the Moslem religion, has sent a proclamation announcing the deposition of Abdul Hamid as spiritual ruler for treason and perjury.

The future of the Sultan is undecided. The vast number of Young Turks would take delight in sending him after other monarchs who fell before revolutions of their people. But they have to deal with the hordes of Abdul's church and the leaders are not confident that the army will stand for Abdul's execution.

EVENTS OF ELIOT

The Grange Goes Visiting and Will Have Visitors

Royal G. Hill Badly Hurt by Fall from His Wagon

Eliot, Me., April 26.

Master Charles B. Gale, every officer and enough other members of John F. Hill Grange to make a party of forty visited Gorgeanna Grange at Brixham on Saturday evening and worked the third and fourth degrees on a class of eight. They had a supper and drove home at the midnight hour. Visitors were met from the Granges at North Berwick, South Berwick and Hampton.

There will be work in the third and fourth degrees and a supper when the Kittery Grangers come visiting John F. Hill Grange at the meeting this evening.

Charles Foster has the hen that is claimed to hold the record for hatching chickens. She disappeared in March and it was thought that something had happened to her. It was all explained on Sunday morning when she proudly came across the field with twenty-seven tiny chicks following after her.

Royal G. Hill was thrown from his riding wagon on Saturday evening a short distance above Kennard's corner on the old road, and sustained severe injuries. Three ribs were torn from the breast bone and internal injuries are feared. The accident occurred from the horse starting while Mr. Hill was reaching over the back of the seat to adjust some stuff which was loaded in the rear of the wagon.

Goodly numbers from Portsmouth and Dover were in Eliot on Sunday to hunt for May flowers. The chief hunting grounds are in the northern part of the town.

Ice the thickness of window glass was found on puddles by the Sunday morning early risers. Pretty cold for April 25.

Rev. W. B. Eldridge is to be the new Methodist minister at East Eliot, to succeed Rev. John L. Clancy, who is transferred to Bowdoinham after five years here. Rev. Daniel Onstott is to remain at the head of the South Eliot Methodist church, which is linked with the Kittery village parish. Word was received this morning from the conference at Berlin, N. H.

Delmont Buck writes home from Gleichen, Alberta, Western Canada, where he is visiting at the ranch of his uncle, William Treh. He is on his way home from a Pacific coast trip which took him through northern Mexico on the westward part of the journey.

POLICE COURT

Pearl Williams and Ethel Clayton, both claiming Massachusetts as their home state, pleaded guilty to street walking before Judge Gimes in police court today. The last hike cost them $14.40 each. They paid and were released.

LOOKING FOR HIS TWENTY

A Dover sport who made a flying trip to this city in answer to a phony letter telling him he had won twenty at the Elks' fair had his troubles on Saturday in looking up the coin. The twenty is coming and it's a question who copied Bill's signature.

THE SMOKE PLAGUE OF AMERICA

CAN BE OVERCOME BY THE PROPER METHODS.—U. S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY MAKING EXPERIMENTS AND CONFIDENT OF RESULTS.

Washington, April 26.—The smoke plague of American cities has been conquered by science according to the statement of Federal experts who have been studying the problem for a number of years. They not only make the assertion that smoke prevention is possible, but stand ready to prove it by actual demonstration to anyone sufficiently interested and are proving it every day at the United States Geological Survey experimental station, at Pittsburg, Pa. In that smoky city the plant is being operated absolutely without smoke and the experts are burning coal considered refuse by the trade, costing delivered at the station, eighty-eight cents a ton.

"Some may say that this can only be done at an experimental station and not at a commercially operated plant," said H. M. Wilson, Chief Engineer Technologic Branch, United States Geological Survey. "But the investigation conducted by the government lead to a different belief. Employees of the Survey visited industrial establishments in the larger cities of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania and found more than 200 plants being operated without smoke and with a gain in economy, for smoke these days means waste.

"The investigation indicates that the clean, comfortable American city with a normal amount of sunshine is not far off. Smokeless cities only await a quickened public conscience to the fact that this nuisance means uncleanness, poverty, wretchedness, disease and death. The public has only to realize that smoke in the cities costs in merchandise in stores and warehouses, more than six hundred million dollars a year. This loss in money is based on the statement of the Chicago smoke inspector that his city suffers a loss each year of fifty million dollars. More than a third of the people of this country live in the great and moderate sized cities."

The Geological Survey has been endeavoring for several years by experiments to increase the efficiency with which the fuels of the country are being used and this lead to a study of the smoke problem, for smoke is waste due to imperfect combustion. The statement is now made that in fifty per cent of the industrial plants of the United States more than ten per cent of the coal bill can be saved each year by the smokeless burning coal and five per cent in the other plants. This would amount to several million dollars.

The experts who had immediate charge of this investigation were D. T. Randall and H. W. Weeks, engineers of the Technologic branch of the Survey, and they have just made

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work. Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your kidneys may need attention, but your kidneys need, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or feel badly, begin taking the great kidney medicine, Dr. Williams' Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder medicine, is soon realized. It cures the highest, the most remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. It is a medicine you should have the best. Add by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample of this pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Williams, at Rindgeham, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a cheap pill or something in place of Swamp-Root do you do you will be disappointed.

WHY

Beecham's Pills

do the annual sales of Beecham's Pills amount to many millions of boxes? Why is it that wherever the English language is spoken, the world over, Beecham's Pills are so extensively used and are so highly recommended? Why is it that in many thousands of homes, Beecham's Pills have been the great household remedy for generations?

owe their great reputation to their exceptional effectiveness in overcoming disorders of the digestive tract. They contain no new or mysterious drugs. They are simply a happy combination of the products of several well-known medicinal herbs, the proportions of which have been so adjusted as to produce unusually helpful results. They contain no Mercury, or other mineral substances, and they are entirely free from habit-forming drugs. They are quickly and freely soluble and do not become hard and worthless with age. They never irritate the bowels or leave them exhausted. They produce normal action, leave the bowels toned and strengthened and do not promote a physicing habit.

The remarkable effectiveness of Beecham's Pills for the relief of Biliousness, Constipation, Dyspepsia and Intestinal Indigestion has gradually extended their reputation from country to country till now they their report which will soon be issued by the Geological Survey as a bulletin. Mr. Randall makes the statement that not only can bituminous coals high in volatile matter be burned without smoke, but also that large plants carrying loads that fluctuate widely, where boilers over-banked fires must be put into service quickly and fires forced to capacity can be operated without producing smoke that is objectionable. Mr. Randall maintains that it is not necessary to use any one certain patented furnace to obtain smokeless conditions. On the other hand he declares that there are many types of furnaces and stokers that burn coal without smoke.

"Credit is to be given to any one kind of apparatus only in so far as the manufacturer require that is shall be so set under the boilers that the principles of combustion are respected," says Mr. Randall. "A good stoker or furnace poorly set is of less value than a poor stoker or furnace well set. Good installation is necessary for smoke prevention."

And here is the secret of all smokeless burning coal. Mr. Randall says, "Stokers or furnaces must be set so that the combustion is complete before the gases strike the heating surface of the boiler. When partly burned gases at a temperature of, say, 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit strike the tubes of a boiler at say, 350 degrees Fahrenheit, combustion is necessarily hindered and may be entirely arrested. The length of time required for the gases to pass from coal to the heating surface probably averages considerably less than a second, a fact which shows that the gases and air must be intimately mixed when large volumes of gas are distilled, as at times or hand firing the gas must be distilled uniformly, as in mechanical stokers."

The Survey's engineers do not believe satisfactory results can be obtained in plants where the furnaces are fired by hand. Although hand-fired furnaces can be operated without objectionable smoke," says Mr. Randall, "the furnace is so variable a factor that the ultimate solution of the problem depends upon the mechanical stoker in other words the personal element must be eliminated. The small plant is no longer dependent on hand-fired furnaces, as certain types of mechanical stokers are adapted under a guarantee of high economy, with reduction of labor for the operator."

None of the problems of combustion has received more experimental treatment than the burning of coal in hand-fired furnaces. Hundreds of queries for smokeless combustion have been patented but almost without exception they have proved failures. This record may be explained by the fact that none of the processes have been successful with all the difficulties to be overcome, or have been at the wrong end. Numerous patents cover such processes and find that the waste of fuel is too great. The Survey's engineers for collecting and burning coal are beginning to make manufacturers who have been looking for some cheap addition to a poorly constructed furnace to make it smokeless have been forced to face the failure that the work of educating the public to the effect of the smokeless furnace has been hard, long and only partially successful.

Police officer M. Kelley is making many improvements about his property on Cass street. He is also laying down his garden which he admits will be something of a prize farm.

DOVER DOINGS

Dover, April 26.—Colby college baseball team gave New Hampshire State college a severe beating in the opening game of the latter's season at Central park Saturday nineteen to three. After the first inning not a New Hampshire man reached third base. New Hampshire opened weakly in the field. Merrill then held the visitors down to scattered hits up to the sixth, when they jumped on him. In the ninth they banged out ten hits, on which nine runs were scored before Swan was put in. Fielding errors contributed largely to the run-getting.

Newmarket mule baseball team defeated the Cocheco mules at Aquaniplegan park Saturday afternoon in a six-inning game, five to four. The game was fast and exciting. The spectators got into a lively argument and the game was stopped.

George R. Hodson of this city is now the champion bowler of New Hampshire in three string events. Recently he rolled a total of 374, the respective strings totaling 133, 119 and 122. He has held the previous state record of 365 held by Carl Pease of Laconia. He is pretty close to the world's record.

The anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship was celebrated by the two local lodges, Weschamer and Mount Pleasant, and Purty lodge of Rehoboth, at the Central Avenue Baptist church on Sunday. They were present by invitation of the pastor, the Rev. C. F. Potter. Mr. Potter delivered a most excellent sermon built around the theory that the church needed more of the brotherly spirit and that the secret orders should dwell more strongly on the Godly life. Charles (Columbus) presided at the organ and several anthems were rendered by a quartette consisting of Mrs. Files, Mrs. Blaisdell, Mr. Whitehead and Mr. Steeves.

The Rev. C. M. Seaman, pastor of the Advent church, delivered his last sermon as pastor on Sunday. The parishioners and brother ministers to the departure of the Rev. Mr. Seaman from the city, but extend wishes for success in his larger field of labor. He has been pastor of the local church for a year and four months and while here has made a host of friends. He goes to a large church in Springfield, Mass., taking up his labors there one week from Sunday. The parish there is three times as large as the one here.

Rev. C. F. Potter is the recently elected president of the Stratford County Young People's society. The funeral of Mrs. Anna Smith was held on Sunday afternoon at her home, 1 Union street. Rev. Evans W. Pond, pastor of the First Parish church, was the officiating clergyman. Burial was in Pine Hill cemetery.

The funeral of Miss Elizabeth Grimes was held on Sunday morning at St. Mary's church. Rev. Walter Lee was the officiating clergyman. The learners were John Murray, Thos. Lane, Michael Lane and Thos. Boyd. Burial was in the new cemetery.

was greeted by a large congregation, and at the conclusion of the services held an informal reception to his great many friends in this city.

Rev. Alfred Gooding, the pastor on Sunday exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. DeNormandie and preached in Roxbury, returning home on the evening train.

AT DARTMOUTH

Substantial progress has been made by the committee having the new gym fund in charge since the beginning of vacation. At present some $35,000 has been pledged and about $25,000 has been paid into the treasury. The organization among the alumni previous to 1885 has been perfected and responses are coming in well. With $100,000 in pledges and $50,000 in cash the committees will confer with the trustees of the college with a view to beginning work on construction this spring, so that the building will be ready for next spring, when the need for it will be great. The committee reports that the most discouraging features of the work is the apathy of the undergraduate body toward payment of their subscriptions, and this very condition may make it necessary to delay the work. Dr. Howler makes a personal appeal to the students to have their subscriptions paid in at once. The amount pledged is not as large as it ought to be, and what is worse, the percentage of subscriptions which has been paid is far too low. Aside from the actual cash value of the undergraduate pledges there is a much greater value in the influence they have upon the alumni, who look upon them as an indication of the need for pledges accordingly. If a class is small and cannot lead in the amount pledged it can easily stand first in the percentage of pledges paid. It is remarkable that the freshmen class, the largest in college, and the one which will have the most use of the new gym, is so far behind the other classes in their subscriptions. A bulletin has been posted at college hall containing the names of those who have paid either all or part of their subscriptions.

Four hundred and eighty applications have already been received from the entering class for rooms in the college buildings next year. This is an increase of nearly 100 over the number last year at this time. The Swett house has been rented for the entire year and will not be used as a dormitory in the fall.

There will be a gala day in Hanover on Wednesday, when Dartmouth opens her 1909 baseball season or Alumni oval in the initial game with Bowdoin. A grand street parade will precede the game, with the college band at the head, and several members of the faculty athletic committee. Dean Emerson will throw out the first ball to be pitched against the Maine aggregation, and a reception will be tendered the visiting team at College hall in the evening. A second game will be played with Bowdoin on Thursday, while Dartmouth will meet Holy Cross at Worcester on Saturday. During the hard daily practice of the past week on the campus the "spit ball," as taught by former Capt. Johnny Glaze '08, has been the feature of the box work.

Prospects of a bright tennis season this year are of the best. Three varsity tennis men are back in college and with a strong substitute they should prove a winning combination. Eight matches, including the intercollegiate, have been scheduled by Captain Smith, while three more are pending. The annual spring tournament will be played off during the latter part of May or the first of June. The schedule which has been drawn up by the manager includes an eight day trip into Massachusetts and a three day trip to the University of Vermont. The schedule follows: Dartmouth faculty, Hanover, May 8; University of Vermont, Hanover, May 10-12; New England Intercollegiate, Boston, May 23-27; Williams college, Williamstown May 23; Springfield Country club, Springfield, May 29; Amherst college at Amherst, May 31, a. m.; Warner Meadow Golf club, Northampton, May 31 p. m.; University of Vermont, Burlington, June 2-4. Matches pending with Massachusetts Aggies, the Union college and Cornell University.

A. B. Dudley, '12, has resigned from college. Arthur Joseph Ganley '11 has been elected to Beta Theta Pi. Arthur Stephenson Dunning has been elected to Phi Kappa Psi and W. L. Norris '11 has been elected to Gamma Delta Epsilon.

THOUSANDS DONE TO DEATH

Disturbances In Asiatic Turkey Are Widespread

25,000 VICTIMS IN ADANA

Other Districts Have Been Scenes of Massacres of Thousands More—Warships Find It Difficult to Restore Order—Ten Thousand People in Armenian Village Without Water Supply—Frantic Appeals For Aid

Beirut, April 26.—The situation in Asiatic Turkey is one of extreme gravity. How many thousands have been massacred cannot even be estimated, because the disturbances have been so widespread that it is impossible to secure details of the happenings during the past ten days.

The latest estimates of the number killed in the village of Adana reaches approximately 25,000, and thousands have been done to death in the towns of other districts.

The state of siege which several of the places are undergoing has brought the inhabitants to the verge of starvation, and each day brings its tales of further atrocities and the depths of misery and despair to which the savagery of the fanatics has brought the people.

Several warships are now in these waters, but the disorders are so far reaching that the efforts of the powers to restore normal conditions have as yet hardly been felt. The French cruiser Jules Ferry arrived here Sunday, and left almost immediately for Latakia, where swarms of refugees are pouring in. British, French and German warships are at other ports, and marines have been landed to quell disorders as far as possible at the more important points.

One of the missionaries at Alexandretta, Mr. Kennedy, with 450 Turkish troops has gone to the relief of Deiriyul, an Armenian village on the coast, where 10,000 people within the walls are besieged by immense bands of Kurds and Circassians. Only two days ago a British warship returned from that place, the governor having refused the commander permission to land a relief party. The water supply has been cut off from the town and the besieged are suffering greatly on that account. The children are drinking out of animal tracks after a shower. There was incessant firing on Greek subjects sent out under an escort Sunday.

Confirmation has been received of the burning of the Armenian village of Kessab. All the men and many women and children have been slain. The American property at Kessab was destroyed. Miss Chambers, an American missionary, is safe.

A British warship has been ordered from Alexandretta to Suediah, where conditions have become worse. All the property of the Christians at Djebel Berekat has been destroyed. The total loss is unknown, but it will be enormous.

Reports state that Hadjin, in the village of Adana, is on fire. There are five American women quartered here, including Miss Lambert, who has been sending out appeals for help. Miss Virginia A. Billings and Miss Bowman. The authorities have refused permission to Messrs. Lawson and Chambers, also American missionaries, to go to their relief.

Frantic appeals for protection and for food are coming in from all sections. Beirut is quiet.

More than a thousand motor cars are entered in the parade. Cash prizes to the amount of $2000 will be given to contestants in the decorated division for pleasure cars, grotesque cars, commercial and advertising displays.

Number of Villages Wiped Out and Others Badly Injured

Lisbon, April 26.—The seismic disturbances have now ceased throughout Portugal. Everyone is greatly impressed with the courage and energy of King Manuel, who, after directing the firemen in the city when the first and most violent shock occurred, set out with physicians and supplies for the districts where the destruction was the greatest.

A number of villages have been wiped out. Salvaterra and San Stefano were badly damaged. Thirty-nine bodies have been taken from the ruins and 120 persons are missing. Hundreds were injured. It is reported that in other villages churches collapsed.

Parliament has voted $100,000 for the relief of the sufferers. The officials of the observatory of Coimbra university place the center of the phenomenon in the sea, close to the coast.

SAY HAINS IS INSANE

Defense Planning to Move For Suspension of His Trial

New York, April 26.—The question of calling upon expert alienists to testify in behalf of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., whose trial for the murder of William F. Annis is in progress at Flushing, N. Y., was discussed at a conference held here between the father and two brothers of the captain, John F. McIntyre and Daniel O'Reilly, counsel for the defense, and three alienists.

No decision was reached, but O'Reilly, in commenting on the discussion, said that it was not improbable that as soon as the work of choosing the jury was concluded the defense would move to suspend the trial on the ground that their client was not only insane at the time of the crime, but was insane at present.

In the event of a lunacy commission corroborating this view Hains would be committed to an insane asylum.

POLICE FIRE ON AUTOISTS

The Latter Escape After Fatally Injuring a Man in New York

The occupants of the car crouched low and the bullets whizzed by without doing any damage.

Increasing its speed the machine quickly disappeared and the identity of the men and women is unknown.

SULTAN YIELDS TO INVADERS

Troops Formally and Unconditionally Surrender

THE CASUALTIES HEAVY

Estimated That Two Thousand Were Killed in Constantinople—Guns of Young Turks Threatened to Blow City Into Ruins—Not Yet Known What Will Be Done With Abdul Hamid—Martial Law Prevails

Constantinople, April 26.—The Yildiz garrison surrendered Sunday to the Constitutional forces. The commanders of these battalions began sending in their submission to Mahmoud Scheiket Pasha Saturday night and the whole of the troops protecting the palace gave their formal and unconditional surrender shortly after dawn. Naiza Bey is now in command of the garrison.

Sultan Abdul Hamid has been permitted to remain within the walls of the Yildiz Kiosk, where on Saturday with his ministers he awaited the outcome of the struggle between his loyal troops and the army of investment, each hour bringing to him word of a fresh disaster. The casualties on both sides are exceedingly heavy for the length of time the engagement was in progress.

It is estimated that 2000 men were killed in the fighting in the capital Saturday and that the losses were heaviest on the side of the Constitutionalists, who did all of the attacking. A representative of the commander and who offered good targets in the open.

In-chief of the Constitutionalists is authorized for saying that the sultan will be dealt with by the parliament and that there will be an adequate inquiry into the sovereign's alleged complicity in the recent mutiny. Up to the present the ministry has not been dissolved, but Constantinople and a number of other places have been declared in a state of siege. Martial law prevails and while there is some uneasiness among the people, order has been maintained with a strict hand.

The last garrison to surrender was the Seimieh artillery barracks, in Scutari, opposite Stamboul. Four thousand men stationed there with a hundred guns threatened to blow the city into ruins, but on Sunday General Scheiket ordered up sixty big guns and several batteries of machine guns to positions which commanded the barracks and the cruiser Medjeh steamed out of range of the field pieces and prepared for action. The commander of the barracks thereupon submitted and the artillerymen marched out as the troops of the other garrisons already have been treated, and made temporary prisoners without arms, to await transfer to outlying districts.

Following Saturday's terrific fighting, the city took on an aspect of strange quiet towards evening. There was some fear that there would be further fighting during the night, for the forces of General Scheiket were strongly posted close to the palace. But beyond a few scattering shots there was nothing to disturb the peace of the city.

The investing troops were reinforced, however, in the fear that the Yildiz garrison would remain loyal to the sultan and continue the struggle to the end. The officers in command of these soldiers saw the hopelessness of resistance and there was no opposition when various commanders laid down their swords and gave over their detachments to the strongly entrenched "enemy."

Colonel Galib, inspector-general, has been made responsible for the preservation of order and placards have been posted about the city, requesting the people to continue their business, open the shops, on which the shutters are still up, and to avoid accepting as true and repeating rumors prejudicial to tranquility of mind.

The evacuation of the quarters around the Yildiz Kiosk began early Sunday morning. The soldiers of the garrison were made prisoners and their places were taken by Macedonian battalions.

The sultan summoned his grand vizier, Tewfik Pasha, and the minister of war, Edhem Pasha, to come to him, when the guns first began to sound Saturday morning. They remained with him throughout the day and received bulletins of the disaster from time to time.

The sultan's bearing is described as troubled. He was silent and outwardly calm, and was considerate and courteous toward his aides and others who came in contact with him.

WARSHIPS VISIT PACIFIC COAST

Two Ships of Japanese Training Squadron Arrive

TO CALL AT MANY PORTS

Comparatively Modern Vessels Are Prizes of Russo-Japanese War—Commander of Squadron Expresses Great Admiration For Americans—Elaborate Greeting Planned by Federal and State Officials

Los Angeles, April 26.—For the first time in ten years, warships of Japan entered a Pacific coast port of the United States when the cruiser Soya and Aso, comprising the Japanese training squadron commanded by Rear Admiral Ijichi, steamed into San Pedro Sunday. The Aso and Soya are on a visit of some weeks' duration, which will take them to all of the principal ports of the Pacific coast.

The two ships are prizes of the Russo-Japanese war. The Aso is the former Russian cruiser Bayan, found in the harbor of Port Arthur after General Stoessel surrendered. The Soya was formerly the cruiser Varang, which was captured in the harbor of Chemulpo. They are comparatively modern warships, carrying heavy batteries and equipped with high speed engines.

The Aso is the flagship of Ijichi, a veteran of the war with Russia. "We shall visit Los Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle and Victoria and possibly other ports," said the admiral. "We must return to Japan by Aug. 1. We of Japan have great admiration for Americans, and I am glad of this opportunity to return here for even so short a stay."

Neither the federal or state government officials made any special demonstration of welcome. That is reserved for San Francisco, when the warships arrive there about May 1. Then the Pacific fleet and the federal and state officials will extend an elaborate greeting.

However, representatives of the 10,000 Japanese living in southern California met the vessels. Hundreds of Japanese journeyed to San Pedro and four steamers were chartered by them. Later, with passengers and with flags of the United States and Japan flying, these vessels steamed out to welcome the warships. A committee presented to Admiral Ijichi an address of welcome. Gifts of hundreds of boxes of fruit were presented to the officers and men.

The police believe that dissections among Italian workmen engaged in repairing the south tower were responsible for the explosion. The cathedral was built more than 100 years ago during the Spanish regime in Louisiana.

ROOSEVELT'S HUNT ON KAPITI PLAINS

He Fails to Get Much-Sought Horns as Trophies

Nairobi, April 26.—After a brief hunting expedition at Kapiti Plains, Theodore Roosevelt and his party broke camp and started for the ranch of Sir Alfred Pease, on the Attil river, Sunday.

Mr. Roosevelt's first hunt was favored by fine weather. He bagged two wildebeest and a Thompson's gazelle. In one respect Roosevelt was somewhat disappointed, as he had been anxious to secure a Grant's gazelle, whose massive horns are much sought after for trophies. The hunt lasted several hours.

Smallpox is prevalent at Nairobi, and two cases have developed among the porters at Kapiti. These have been quarantined and the strictest precautions are being observed to prevent a spread of the disease among the Roosevelt party. The danger of this is now considered slight.

ARMISTICE AT TABRIZ

It Is Prolonged Through Shah's Fear of Russian Intervention

Teheran, April 26.—The shah has consented to an indefinite prolongation of the armistice at Tabriz and the entrance of unlimited supplies to the city, which for a month has been in a state of siege, defended by 5000 Nationalists or Constitutionalists, against 6000 soldiers of the shah. Many persons of both sides have been killed and the inhabitants of the city have been reduced to abject want.

The "generosity" of the shah is ascribed officially to be the result of negotiations with the besieged, but it is believed to have been due to fear of Russian intervention. The announcement that a Russian expedition has left Jaffa to restore order at Tabriz has caused great uneasiness among the Nationalists.

SUMMER INSECT PESTS

This is the season to warn against those insect pests, flies and mosquitoes. The warm weather is coming on, and both are liable to be plentiful.

The fly is now known to be the principal spreader of typhoid fever, ranking in that respect above impure drinking water. It is the fly which establishes new sources of contagion by carrying it from place to place, while impure water does not carry the disease in any such degree.

The screening of the house is not the whole of protection against either flies or mosquitoes, for the cleaning of dirty premises and draining of stagnant waters will go far to prevent their breeding.

The mosquito is the spreader of the various malarial fevers in the southern countries. Portsmouth has little acquaintance with those diseases, but past history shows that serious outbreaks of yellow fever have occurred in New York and Boston and other northern cities. Northern ports are continually receiving men and vessels from ports in the danger zone, and nobody knows when some disease carrying mosquitoes may also be brought, and may escape and start the infection in our community. Besides that danger, which is less remote than we are apt to think, the prevention of mosquitoes is worth while for the sake of comfort.

A good clean appearance for the city and its surroundings is also a valuable asset for the community.

Portsmouth is a little the best city on the Atlantic coast and we want to keep it so.

BIRD'S EYE VIEWS

A French journalist who has been investigating the national tyrannies of Europe classifies them under three heads—local, national and revolutionary. Those of Great Britain, America, Denmark, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden, and Montenegro were composed in honor of the governments of those countries, and belong to the first class. The American, British, Norwegian, and Hungarian are described as "national," and the "Marschall's" "God Save the King" and "La Brabantine" (the French anthem) may be styled revolutionary. The only anthem composed by a poet of the first rank is the Norwegian "Ja vi elsker." The "We Love This Country" for which a Brahms is responsible. The "Land of the Austrian" was composed by Haydn; the others come from comparatively unknown composers, except the Portuguese, which is the work of Dom Pedro I. Emperor of Brazil.

Fire proof buildings of masonry are so common in nearly every town that they cause no comment, while concrete bridges are on every hand. We speak of primitive man as belonging to the stone age but the real stone age has just begun. That wonderful artificial stone called reinforced concrete has all the essentials of timber, except combustibility, with the withering influence of fire or the ravages of rot affect it. Strong as steel, durable as granite, reinforced concrete has worked wonders. But those of yesterday will become commonplace tomorrow and tomorrow will disclose new uses for this remarkable building material. The ancient age of stone and the modern age of iron have combined and made the new age of "Steelcraft."

Maine and New Hampshire Legislatures

The New Hampshire legislature, which has just adjourned, did work along many lines exactly parallel with that accomplished by the Maine legislature. This is not so much of a coincidence after all, for naturally enough, the same conditions exist to a large extent in these two neighboring states and they are influenced largely by the same popular movements. Thus we find that during the past winter both states thoroughly revised their militia laws; both made large appropriations to fight the gypsy moth; both spent much time on the liquor legislation; both established new normal schools and made generous appropriations for the existing state institutions; both made appropriations for enlarging the state capitol; both adopted a new state flag; both passed new laws for the prevention and fighting of forest fires; both increased the taxes of various kinds of corporations, and in various other matters they legislated along practically the same line.

In one respect, at least, New Hampshire went farther than Maine, namely, in the enactment of a direct primary law. The New Hampshire legislature also enacted the anti-free pass law, something which Maine did a little earlier. The whole number of laws passed at Concord was not nearly so large as that passed at Augusta and there was far less special and private legislation. Of course the total appropriations in New Hampshire were smaller than in Maine, since Maine is much the larger and wealthier state.—Kennebec Journal.

Putney's Address Not Changed.

The Manchester Mirror coyly suggests that while it has not seen complete copies of the acts and resolutions passed by the legislature of 1909 or the opinions of the Supreme court handed down at the April term, their understanding is that if R. W. Putney or Winston Churchill wish to communicate with the chairman of the railroad commission, a letter addressed to Henry M. Putney will reach the proper official as aforesaid.—Laconia Democrat.

Suitable Gifts

The Canaan Reporter notes in the presentation of tokens of good-will esteem at the close of the legislature, the two solons who listened to a private conversation between Attorney Hamblett and Lucius Tuttle were overlooked, and Editor Barnes thinks their memory should be perpetuated in some way. A couple of hard rubber laurel wreaths would be appropriate.—Laconia Democrat.

Sounds Like Common Sense.

The best way to get rid of the lobby at Concord during the session of the legislature is to remove the cause for that lobby. If the legislature could be trusted to faithfully and impartially do what is right there would be no call for men to watch them. But when

NEW YORK ACTRESS

Parisian Sage Made Her Hair Grow Two Inches in Seven Months

Of all the women in the world, an actress most ardently desires beautiful and luxuriant hair. And when her hair begins to fall out she becomes anxious and intelligently seeks for a preparation that will stop the falling, grow new hair and give life and beauty to the old.

Joan Sawyer, a clever, handsome actress, has this to say of Parisian Sage:

"To whom it may concern: Have tried most every hair tonic available, and at last Parisian Sage was recommended to me, and as a last resource used it to my entire satisfaction. My hair has stopped falling, dandruff stopped, and my hair has grown two inches in the last seven months. It is the best and only sure cure for thin and short hair I know."—Joan Sawyer, 20 East 59th St., New York City.

Parisian Sage is the scientific hair restorer that has created such a veneration since its introduction into America about two years ago. It is such a quick acting prescription that every agent who sells it will guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair, splitting hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

It is the most delightful hair dressing in the world, and is highly praised by society women and actresses who have luxuriant and glorious hair.

It will turn harsh, lusterless hair into soft, silky and luxuriant hair in a few days.

G. E. Philbrick is the agent for Parisian Sage in Portsmouth and he sells it for 50 cents a large bottle, the largest bottle for the price on the market.

a majority of four hundred men can be swayed and influenced by the talk of a few and that few are men who are likely to be influenced by passion or prejudice it becomes necessary to have a counteracting influence to make sure that right action prevails.—Franklin Journal-Transcript.

Here is the first direct plea for the lobby that we have yet seen. But what's the matter, Mr. Transcript, with answering arguments on the floor of the legislature? Is all the oratorical ability confined to one side of the question? Might not the same line of reasoning be applied to the roughest sort of bribery? And doesn't the whole question in the end resolve itself into the old query whether the end justifies the means?—Rochester Courier.

YORK

The New England telephone company will expend about $5000 in extending its service between York Harbor and York Beach this spring.

Through the agency of J. Perley Putnam, the large Goodrich brick summer cottage, situated on York river, known as "The River House," has been leased for the coming summer to J. B. Willets of New York city.

The Fales cottage at York Harbor has been leased to Rev. D. W. Roberts.

Rev. Newton R. Perkins took up the reins as superintendent of schools on Monday, April 26.

Mr. Donald Wakefield has entered the employ of Ernest Hobson and will remain with him until fall.

The schools at the Village held session last week Monday as the teachers desired to take Monday, April 26, as a holiday instead.

The King's Daughters held a regular meeting Saturday at Mrs. Charles Gilman's at York Harbor.

The prospects for a good summer season in York are brighter than usual. All of the seashore cottages have been already let, as well as many others located further back from the sea. Applications for rooms in the various hotels are pouring in, and it looks as though the hotels would be filled from the early part of the summer.

Sunday, April 19, Rev. Albert J. Croft, who has been pastor at the Methodist church at York Village for the past three years, preached his farewell sermon. Mr. Croft was born at Keeneyville, Pa., February 25, 1877. He entered Genesee Wesleyan seminary in 1899, and was graduated in 1902. The following fall he entered Syracuse university being graduated from that institution in 1906. From 1906 to 1909 he studied theology in the Boston university, during which time he has also been pastor of the Methodist church in York. While a student in Syracuse university he was a member of the Inter-Collegiate Debating team. He also joined the Zeta Psi, one of the strongest college fraternities in the country. Mr. Croft's pastorate in York has been successful in the highest degree, for under his guidance the congregation of the church has been more than doubled. The Sunday school tripled and the Epworth League quadrupled. Not only did he win the friendship of those in his own church, but also that of all with whom he came in contact. Mr. Croft was more than a preacher of the Gospel. He was a man in the truest sense of the word, one in whom all could find a firm and true friend. He entered into all social affairs, and whatever he undertook to do he carried through with that degree of energy that spells success. He appealed especially to the younger element which fact is testified to by the large number of young men and women who attended the church while he was in charge. While in York Mr. Croft became a member of the Grange and was also made a Mason. Mr. Croft has been transferred by Bishop Wilson to Spring Valley, Minnesota, where he will fill the vacancy caused by the death of their former pastor. The Methodist church in Spring Valley is one of the strongest churches in the Minnesota conference. There is not a man, woman or child in York but what is deeply grieved to have Mr. Croft leave, and the best wishes of all attend him in his new pastorate.

NEWMARKET

The Cocheco baseball team came to Newmarket Thursday afternoon and defeated the Newmarket team by a score of 9 to 1 in a game that abounded in sensational plays. Charlie Stevens was on the firing line for the Cocheco team and he did some fine work, striking out eight men and allowing but three hits from his delivery, and giving but one pass. Maurice Hayes caught his catches of fine form, several of his catches of foils being of the sensational order. O'Connor was on the firing line for Newmarket and he was very unsteady at times, issuing five passes, and then his delivery was touched up pretty freely at critical stages of the game.

Wife of William K. Sr., Puffs Her Cigarette as the Liner Prepares to Cast Off.

New York City.—Smoking a gold tipped cigarette, which was held between two richly jeweled fingers, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., stood in the doorway of her suite on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie and calmly surveyed the stream of passengers hurrying by her cabin through the main companionway just prior to the sailing of the big liner.

Her husband, at the moment, was hurrying to the adjacent suite of his stepdaughter, Miss Beatrice Rutherford, in an effort to escape a number of reporters who were bombarding him with questions relating to grand opera.

None of them was answered, Mr. Vanderbilt's only response being "Nothing to say. Nothing to say."

As he disappeared into the vacant staterooms (Miss Rutherford was with her mother at the time) and vigorously slammed the door behind him, the reporter turned his attention to the lady of the cigarette. Then Mrs. Vanderbilt was asked:

"Would you object to stating something about your plans on the other side?"

"Oh, I don't care (puff) to talk about them" (puff).

"Will you remain abroad long?"

"Same as usual" (puff).

"Does that mean all summer?"

"Yes" (puff).

"Return in the fall?"

"Yes" (puff).

"Going to the South of France this year?" persisted the reporter.

"No" (puff). "Stay in Paris" (puff).

"Goin' yachting?"

"No" (puff).

And that was all.

HEARD DYING FRIEND'S OUTCRY.

W. A. Moore Unable to Account for Phenomenon at Moment of Death.

Hartford, Conn.—Though nobody ever accused William A. Moore, first vice president of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, of being a spiritualist, or a member of any of those kindred cults, nevertheless Mr. Moore's former incredulity is staggering under a remarkable psychological vision and weird conversation which he thinks he had at the moment that his friend, Richard P. Romaine, president and general manager of the Windsor Locks Paper Company, died.

Mr. Moore is vainly seeking an explanation of the marvelous phenomenon.

Just before closing time, Mr. Moore, having signed his mail, was dozing on a couch in his private office, when he was suddenly aware of a familiar voice calling appealingly, "Will, Will."

"Who is it?" he asked.

"It's I, Romaine," came the reply in short accents. Bewildered, Mr. Moore shook himself together and searched his office, and then, bursting open the door into the main office, had the telephone operator hurry a call to the Romaine home. When he asked for Mrs. Romaine he was told she could not answer just then, and he inquired how Mr. Romaine was getting along.

"He died about two minutes ago," replied the maid, and now Mr. Moore wants an explanation as to how his lifelong friend communicated with him at the moment of death.

Bifurcated Garment Proved to Be Only Make-Believe.

Paris, France.—At the races at Auteuil, a young Frenchwoman appeared in the paddock with the latest style of women's skirts, which are so near trousers that the men present were inclined to resent it. The lower garment is made of velvet. At first it appeared to be divided, but inspection revealed that a heavy seam ran down the centre, so the skirt was really a sort of Turkish trousers. The garment was so tight that walking was difficult.

Men and women discussed the new fashion, but opinion seemed to be unanimous that the garment is ugly and clumsy.

"I can't give up my dolls," she laughed, "even if I am married."

On Feb. 16 the sweethearts were wedded in Camden. The girl went home, but was afraid to tell her mother, as Mrs. Bonner objected to her daughter marrying Maloney on account of her youth.

TORCH OF TERRIFIC HEAT.

New Invention Pierces Twelve-Inch Steel and Welds Aluminum.

Cleveland, Ohio.—A torch operated by oxygen and acetylene, radiating a heat of 6,300 degrees, said to be the most terrific known to science, has been invented here.

By means of this torch, it is possible, it is declared, to weld aluminum; heretofore regarded as an impossibility. The torch makes a flame that will cut through two inches of solid steel in less than one minute and pierce a twelve-inch piece of the hardest steel in less than ten minutes. It would take a saw almost twenty hours to do this work.

But common sense in eating may head off indigestion. Kodol corrects indigestion by digesting the food, while the stomach gets well. Also wards off dyspepsia.

There are a lot of things that will bring on serious stomach disorder—if you persist in doing them. You are probably doing some of them. Nervous dyspepsia is an awful complaint. Kodol will prevent your having it.

A regular diet of rich, greasy foods and soggy hot bread—rapid eating without chewing sufficiently—overloading the stomach—all result in indigestion, and more dangerous ailments. Kodol is for dyspepsia and indigestion.

But Kodol will take care of these matters very easily—if you will give Kodol a chance.

Frye, a left hander, pitched his first game for Exeter and was effective. The fielding was in the main sharp. Walsh retired Mercersburg in the third.

Mr. Camp has for many years been at the head of Yale athletics, and is in a position to judge the worth of the Exeter boy at the New Haven college, which he referred to in many ways, and urged the boys to follow an upright, Christian life. ## NAVAL MILITIA

Plans for the Maneuvers All Around the United States

Washington, April 26.—Naval maneuvers on the great lakes on a large scale than before have been participated in by the naval militias in the states bordering on those waters are in prospect for the coming summer. The navy department has been soundly on the prospect of assigning an officer of the United States to command the squadron of vessels which will be manned by the men of the naval militias of Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Minnesota and which it is contemplated maneuverings on the lakes this summer. The assistant secretary of the navy, Mr. Winthrop, has signified his willingness to do everything possible to assist the citizen sailors. It is probable that Commander Charles C. March, who always has been a supporter of the naval militia, will be ordered to take command of the squadron during the cruise.

The flagship will be the gunboat Nashville, which has been under repairs at the Boston yard for some time. That vessel has been assigned to the Illinois naval militia. Capt. W. F. Purdy of that organization will take the Nashville from Boston up the St. Lawrence and through the lakes to Chicago. The Nashville will leave Boston April 30 and will be manned by a crew from the Illinois naval militia.

Plans for the maneuvers on the lakes this summer have not been perfected, but it is expected the squadron will be composed of eight vessels. These will be the Nashville and Dorothea of the Illinois Naval Reserve, the Yantic, Wolverine and Don Juan de Austria of the Michigan naval militia; the Hawk and Essex, belonging to the Ohio militia, and the Gopher, manned by the Minnesota Naval Reserve.

The militias of the southern states will cruise during the summer in one of the vessels of the regular navy, either the Panther or the Prairie. The New England, New York and Pennsylvania citizen sailors will go aboard vessels of the battleship fleet during their annual summer target practice off Cape Cod, Mass., in August.

The navy department, through Assistant Secretary Winthrop, has expressed its willingness to assist the militiamen and will furnish certain light equipment for their use. Signal books and guns for subcaliber firing will be furnished.

February 19 last the total strength of the combined naval militia forces of all the states was 6,292 officers and men. The fleet of naval reserve vessels comprises twenty-five ships.

WILL
SOONNEW COAST ARTILLERY CORPS
TO BE INSPECTED AND START
DRILLING UNDER NEW RULES—
THE COMMANDER TO BE AP-POINTED AFTER EXAMINATION.

The organization of the New Hampshire Coast Artillery corps will shortly be perfected. Company B of this city will be Co. A of the new corps and the Dover company will be company C. The question of who will be in command will be decided after an examination which will be conducted by a board, of which Captain McBride U. S. A., in command of the forts in the lower harbor will be president. Dover has a candidate in the person of the captain of the company who served several years in the Coast Artillery at Fort Warren in Boston, and rated as chief gunner. Captain C. B. Hoyt of this city will be a candidate and his excellent record since he has been in command of the local company should greatly favor him.

Captain McBride U. S. A. under whose command the corps will really be, has given notice of an inspection of the equipment of the companies to be held shortly, and after that is completed the companies will start drilling for their new line of duty. Company A of this city should find no difficulty in recruiting up to its full strength with excellent men, for there are a great many former members of the coast artillery, who are living in this city and New Castle who will be glad to get back into the harness for the week's drill in the summer at the forts. With such material the company would be a valuable asset to the coast defense of this state. These would not only be of great value in time of war, but could materially assist in getting the company into fine shape.

Berwick Academy Won

The Berwick Academy baseball team had an easy proposition in the high school team in their game at the Plains on Saturday afternoon. In the regular schedule of the Southern New Hampshire Interscholastic League. The visiting team was superior in all departments of the game and started out in the first inning by making three runs and shutting out the locals. From that time it was simply a question of the size of the score. The Academy boys have a fine school team in fact easily defeated the New Hampshire college team and would be a hard proposition for any school team in the state. The local boys along with their inability to connect with the pitching of H. Swasey, were off on their fielding and their nine errors account for many of the runs. The local team did manage to escape a whitewash by getting a run in the eighth.

Sailors Defeat Marines
The Sunday baseball season opened at the navy yard on Sunday when the baseball team from the Wisconsin and the U. S. marine guard from the barracks played on the play ground. The game was loosely played at times, and noted for heavy hitting. The sailors had 18 hits to their credit and the Marines pulled out 19. There was a good crowd present from this city and from the ship and from the marine guard. The Marines were outplayed in the first part of the game but made a great rally in the last of the ninth and got eight runs, but were unable to overcome the lead.

HORSE NOT HURT

In a Smashup of a Wagon by a
Portsmouth Train

The Manchester and Portsmouth train due in this city at 10:10 a. m., struck a baker's cart containing two Greeks, on Saturday at the Valley street crossing at Manchester and completely demolished the vehicle.

It was a covered wagon, and the men, chattering busily, failed to hear the whistle of the locomotive as the train neared the crossing. The rear end of the cart was hit by the oncoming locomotive and was scattered in pieces alongside the track. Both men were hurled from the cart. One named Nicklis landing against a telegraph pole and one named Calorios landing in the ditch at the side of the roadbed.

Mr. Nicklis was badly bruised from head to foot, though he escaped broken bones. Mr. Calorios got a severe shaking up, but escaped other injuries. A physician was summoned to attend the men at once and on examining Mr. Nicklis ordered him taken to the Elliot Hospital for treatment. Mr. Calorios was taken to his home, 28 Lake avenue. The stock in trade was widely scattered, but, strange to relate, the horse was uninjured.

helpers, three rivet beaters and one fireman received a call from the labor board on Saturday.

Watch this Man

The bowling artists on both sides of the river have all opened their eyes since they got a look at Chief Carpenter Frank Johnson of the U. S. S. Wisconsin sending them down the alleys.

The Right Kind of a Man

Captain Bishop of the marine guard did the right thing in this city on Sunday when he defended a poor horse being unmercifully whipped by the owner. He followed up his protest by reporting the same to the police. It would be a blessing to have many more such men as Captain Bishop in our midst and it's too bad that he cannot deal out the necessary punishment in such cases.

ARTHUR C. DARES

Death of a Portsmouth Veteran of the War With Spain

Arthur C. Dares, one of the best known young men of this city, passed away at his home on Austin street Saturday night, after an illness of six months. He was aged 36 years.

During the Spanish war he served as sergeant of Company B, New Hampshire National Guard, and had a most excellent record as a soldier. He was connected with the police department as a special officer.

He was a man of sterling qualities and was never found wanting in any position during life. His death causes much sorrow among a wide circle of friends and acquaintances he made since becoming a resident of this city.

SEVENTEEN YEARS OLD

Surprise Birthday Party on Saturday
For Clinton L. Trueman

On Saturday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton L. Trueman, on Middle road, Clinton L. Trueman was pleasantly surprised by about twenty of his young friends who called to assist him in celebrating the seventeenth anniversary of his birth.

The surprise was complete when, called into the house, he found himself surrounded by his friends, and nobly surprised when Master Paul Flux stepped forward and presented him, in behalf of the assembled company, a beautiful and costly fountain pen.

While almost overcome by the succession of surprises, Master Trueman pulled himself together and heartily thanked them for their beautiful gift at the same time inviting them to spend the evening with him.

The company was entertained by phonograph selections and with games. A contest which furnished much amusement was panning the tail on the donkey, Miss Mildred Mahoney capturing the first prize, a souvenir of Portsmouth, and Master William Brackett the second, a box of stationery.

Refreshments of ice cream, cake and fruit were served and the company departed at a late hour wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day.

Those present were the Misses Beatrice Goddard Rebecca Trueman, Dorothy Flux, Fay Trueman, Nellie McCarthy, Ina Trueman, Helen Green, Nina Trueman, Mildred Mahoney and Lydia Young, Masters William Brackett, Paul Flux, Charles Leea, Ralph Brackett, Ralph Eaton, Merion Davidson, John Pollard, Harold Kay, Ernest Trueman and Austin Trueman.

THE NAVY YARDS HERE AND AWAY

New Style of Launch

At Norfolk navy yard the navy department is having constructed a launch of a new style for experimental purposes. The launch is to have no cover as the launches in use at present have. The idea of having an open launch was brought about by the sinking of the launch of the battleship Missouri in Hampton Roads some time ago, which resulted in the drowning of several officers. It has been pointed out that these officers probably would not have lost their lives had there been no canopy on their launch.

Work has also been begun on the construction of a new device to be used on the present launches of the navy. It is called a "melon canopy," and will be fitted to all launches in the navy. Its purpose is to shield the occupants of a launch from the weather and breaking waves. It will so arranged that it can be shifted from port to starboard side with little effort.

A Deserved Promotion

Captain Charles S. Hatch, U. S. M. C., attached at the naval prison, has received orders detaching him and ordering that he take command of the naval prison at Boston. No better selection could be made for this important position, and it comes as a well deserved promotion to Captain Hatch. He is recognized by the men of the marine corps not only as an expert military man but as an officer who never failed to consider the wants of his men who say they always got a square deal from the captain. He relieves Capt. C. C. Carpenter, who is removed following an investigation by the judge advocate at the corps on the recent escape of five prisoners from the Charlestown prison.

Tim Has a Visitor
